DOUGLAS & ZETA AT EACH OTHER'S THROATS!

Day at the U.S. Open marred by misery

THE tennis pros at center court weren't the only combatants in New York City Sept. 12 — Michael Douglas and wife Catherine Zeta-Jones also went to war in the stands!

A family outing to the U.S. Open turned into a scene worthy of Michael's black comedy about a crazed divorcing couple, "War of the Roses," with the superstars viciously tearing into each other in public!

The humiliating scene renewed fears they are headed for another split, sources told The National ENQUIRER!

Accompanied by their 12-year-old daughter, Carys, and 15-year-old son, Dylan, Michael and Catherine were trying to watch the women's final, but as these exclusive photos show, it was far from a picture of family harmony.

Trouble began brewing when the couple grabbed coffee and snacks in their exclusive viewing suite, a source said.

"Michael and Catherine came out and sat their things down on a high countertop before going to their seats, but you could already hear and see them sniping at each other," the source said.

"It seemed like Catherine was goading him — she was laughing at him and Michael's face turned angry.

"They eventually went down to their first-row seats, but it seemed like an hour before they said anything to each other; Michael was looking one way, Catherine the other. You could feel the tension between them."

"I feel sorry for Michael Douglas," Susan Constantine, author of "The Complete Idiot's Guide to Reading Body Language," said. "I can't tell you what they're saying, but it's clear she's in his face and punishing him!"

Each photo tells the same story to Susan. "Michael appears submissive in these shots, while Catherine is domineering and combative. He's constantly looking away in avoidance of her abuse," she explained.

The very public spat marks another downturn in a rocky 14-year marriage between Michael, 71, and Catherine, 46. They separated in May 2013, after she sought treatment for bipolar disorder. NE

Kerry's CANCER nightmare!

MEGA-STRESSED
STAR FEARS SHE'LL END UP LIKE MOM

HOLLYWOOD beauty Kerry Washington is hiding a devastating cancer secret!

While her mother is a courageous breast cancer survivor, the "Scandal" star has told pals she believes she'll suffer the same fate.

A pal revealed: "Kerry lives in mortal fear that because of all her mother's struggles, she'll be taken out by cancer."

The 38-year-old stunner thinks that she carries the same cancer gene that plagues her mother, Valerie, sources said.

"Kerry worries more and more that the genetic codes are stacked against her," added an insider.

She's so obsessed that the stress is actually making her sick, according to friends.

"Kerry's been ultra-diligent about getting regular check-ups, mammograms and screenings, but all the fear and anxiety are putting an added strain on her immune system," said a close friend.

The medical crisis is just the latest setback for the star.

While Kerry and her husband, Nnamdi Asomugha, are proud parents of 1-year-old daughter Isabelle, the two have hit a rough patch.

As The National ENQUIRER exclusively reported, the pair battled over Kerry's white-hot career and workaholic ways, while Nnamdi's star faded after his NFL retirement.

They're in couples' therapy in a desperate bid to avert a breakup, sources said.

Adding to her stress, Kerry suffers from several debilitating food allergies, which leave her exhausted.

"Kerry takes precautions. She eats a healthy low-fat, high-protein diet, she exercises regularly and tries to get at least seven hours of sleep a night," said a source.

"But she still can't shake the dread that she'll one day be diagnosed with cancer."

The pal added: "All the stress is rough on her health."

wattage to a star-studded crowd at the USTA Billie Jean King National Tennis Center in Flushing, Queens.

There, the talk queen and “CBS This Morning” co-anchor whooped and hollered their way through Serena Williams’ quarterfinal victory over sister Venus.

But that was just the tip of the A-list iceberg! Their endless weekend began days before with the couple partying at Discovery Communications mogul David Zaslav’s annual summer-ending fete at his East Hampton estate.

Afterward, our sources said the whole party adjourned to a bonfire on the beach, ablaze in the shadow of an enormous shark sand sculpture evoking Discovery’s enormously successful Shark Week.

But Oprah and Gayle, who is also an editor at large for O, The Oprah Magazine, also found some time for sun and surf — and even dropped by the home of New York City real estate titan Steven Roth and his wife, Daryl, a Broadway producer.

THE RUMORED lovers have never publicly confirmed their relationship is romantic, but Gayle almost did when mumbling either, “I’m gay,” or “I’m okay,” during an awkward segment on her morning show last year.

What’s more, Oprah’s own stepmother, Barbara Winfrey, once questioned the talk queen’s sexuality. But Her O-ness continues to play coy through her murky and nearly 30-year “partnership” with Stedman Graham.

One thing isn’t up for debate: There was no sign of Stedman over Labor Day weekend — or the week after — and Oprah and Gayle seemed very cool with that!

TROUBLED star Shia LaBeouf was recorded ranting to himself, flailing his arms and dancing — completely alone.

The bizarre behavior at a party in Tübingen, Germany, may have been the final freakout for Shia, 29, and his then-galpal, actress Mia Goth, 22.

“He was dancing and talking loudly to himself, kind of like he was on a rant,” said an eyewitness, adding hard-partying Shia was really rude to Mia.

Earlier this summer, Shia was filmed fuming that he would have “killed” Mia. But he was hardly in make-up mode with the “Everest” star.

“Mia was getting pretty annoyed and sounded like she kept saying, ‘Let’s go home, you’ve had enough,’” said the source.

But Shia “was uncontrollable.” NE

REVENGE ON ROSIE!

O'Donnell's rebel daughter moves in with druggie lover's family

ROSIE O'Donnell's runaway daughter is giving up her life of luxury for a shocking "trial marriage" with a convicted heroin dealer in a ramshackle home along the Jersey Shore, The National ENQUIRER can reveal.

As our world exclusive photos show, Chelsea, 18, was the picture of domestic bliss with the troubled Barnegat Township family.

Sporting plaid pajama pants, Chelsea was seen running errands with her future mother-in-law, and dutifully waiting for her beau, Steven Sheerer, 25, to get home from work before going out with him on a romantic trip to a nearby convenience store on Sept. 16.

Her new life "is a clear slap in the face" to her tyrannical adoptive mom who tossed her out of their posh South Nyack, N.Y., home on Aug. 11 and then cruelly declared her missing, unstable and in need of medication, a source said.

Chelsea bolted from Rosie's home shortly after she turned 18 on Aug. 20, and then visited her biological mom in Wisconsin before shacking up with Sheerer, who still faces up to five years in jail on the obscenity charge.

Sheerer was previously arrested for heroin dealing and child endangerment and jailed in 2013, but Chelsea is clearly smitten for her ex-con boyfriend and her new in-laws.

Sheerer's mother told The ENQUIRER: "We've been overwhelmed by everything that is happening."

Meanwhile, Rosie, 53, is getting cozy with her new love interest actress Tatum O'Neal, who recently moved into the former "View" host's South Nyack home.

SMILING bravely through his pain, cancer-stricken René Angélil offered a gentle wave to fans of his wife, Celine Dion.

The image — revealed here by The National ENQUIRER — will likely be the last glimpse ever seen of the singer's ailing husband, currently in the final stages of a long battle with throat cancer.

Last August Celine cancelled all upcoming performances to care for René and their family, which includes son René-Charles, 14, and four-year-old fraternal twins Eddy and Nelson.

Despite his condition, René has urged Celine back to the stage and followed her to their luxurious Nevada compound, where he is spending his last days receiving the finest round-the-clock care and surrounded by family.

Celine has also updated her Las Vegas show to become an intimate tribute to the man she married 20 years ago and describes as "the only personal she has ever performed, a clear tribute to her husband!

"Usher Mike" — whose name we have changed as he was not authorized to speak by Caesars Palace — told us: "She's changed most of the songs in the set."

"Her husband is really, really sick, so it's an amazing thing she's keeping on performing. I guess, in a way, it helps her take her mind off it. You can really tell there's a lot of passion going into each performance."

During her set she speaks to the crowd, telling them how grateful she is for their support.

At the show The National ENQUIRER attended, she said: "I hope that by now you have got the message that tonight's show is very, very personal to me."

The main set ends with a stirring rendition of Queen's 1991 classic, "The Show Must Go On," which appears to be something of a promise from Celine to René, who has been the driving force behind her career since she was a teenager.

In 1999, René was diagnosed with throat cancer and has undergone a number of surgeries to treat it, including a 2013 operation, which led to part of his tongue being removed.

Now Celine and her children must cope with his final days. Agonizingly, even his doctors cannot tell how long he has left, and they have to take each day as a gift.

As Celine herself recently said: "It's important to open your eyes in the morning and look at yourself in the mirror and ask two questions: 'Are you dead, or do you have a ticket to ride?'"

"There are just two tickets. If you're alive, have a good day. Because today is the most important day of your life."

Dedicated Celine took a year off from performing to care for her sick husband

BLAKE'S GIRL BLOSSOM IN HIGH SCH

But the chirpy cheerleader steers clear of murder suspect dad

ROBERT Blake may have killed his daughter's mother — but he surely did not destroy the spirit of Rose, the gorgeous little girl he fathered with Bonny Lee Bakley!

In a world exclusive, The National ENQUIRER has obtained remarkable photos of Rose Blake, 15, a Campbell Hall School varsity cheerleader in L.A.

As the images prove, Rose is thriving, confident and the spitting image of her slain mother, Bonny Lee.

"She is beautiful and super nice and is really, really funny," said a source, who added that Rose enrolled in the private, K through 12 Episcopal school during the last year.

Incredibly, the school, where tuition runs almost $35,000 annually, is located only about a mile from Vitello's, the Studio City Italian restaurant where Bonny Lee was killed on May 4, 2001.

But our source said Rose is none the worse for being so close, adding, "She is making new friends and meeting new people. She had a boyfriend last year.

"She was a cheerleader for football season and she played on the soccer team," the source said.

"She's also involved in the dance program and is taking dance every day and was in a spring dance production."

Rose, now a sophomore, was only 11 months old when her mother was shot to death.

Rose is living with Blake's eldest daughter, Delinah, her fiction-writing husband, Gregg Hurwitz, and their 10-year-old daughter, Natalie, in a sprawling $1.94 million home in the affluent Los Angeles suburb of Sherman Oaks.

Blake was tried and ultimately acquitted of murder in his wife's death in 2005.

What's more, The ENQUIRER can reveal beautiful Rose rarely — if ever — sees her dad.

"Delinah made a conscious decision to make a fresh start," another source explained. "She didn't want Rosie anywhere near her father because she didn't think he was stable."

Delinah obtained permanent custody of Rose in 2002, a year after Bonny Lee was gunned down in a car outside Vitello's.

ON THAT NIGHT, Blake, now 81, returned to the restaurant to retrieve a gun he said he'd left there. The ENQUIRER later interviewed staff members who said no gun was ever found in the booth they'd shared.

Prosecutors alleged Blake killed his wife in order to gain sole custody of baby Rose.

Blake was later found liable for Bonny Lee's death in a civil suit brought by her other children. Delinah and Gregg adopted Rose shortly before Blake's trial began in December 2004.

"Even though Rosie is not her biological daughter, Delinah treats her as if she were," the source added. "She is very affectionate to Rosie."

Wilder at death's door!

GENE Wilder's sickly look has friends worried he'll soon be joining his beloved wife Gilda Radner in heaven!

The National ENQUIRER caught the 82-year-old "Young Frankenstein" star on a rare public outing Sept. 13, being steadied by his fourth wife, Karen Boyer, at the U.S. Open in New York.

An eyewitness told The ENQUIRER: "Gene looks like he's at death's door! It's terribly sad. He's scarily thin and could barely walk had not he been helped by his wife, Karen, and an attendant."

The ENQUIRER traveled to his hometown in Stamford, Conn., and learned there are rumors that the beloved funnyman may secretly be battling a recurrence of cancer.

Only a decade after ovarian cancer claimed Gilda's life in 1989, Gene was diagnosed with non-Hodgkin's lymphoma. Gene underwent chemotherapy and, in 2002, doctors confirmed he was in remission.

But a neighbor told The ENQUIRER: "There's fear around here that the cancer has returned and he could be gone in as little as six months' time. Everyone's praying that's not the case, but he looks awful, like he's dying."

And The ENQUIRER learned from Stamford authorities that medics responded recently to an EMS call at his home.

But in an exclusive interview with The ENQUIRER, Karen reassured his fans: "(He's) just fine. The cancer hasn't returned."

A friend, however, said: "They're putting on a brave front. And while Karen brought him tremendous happiness after Gilda's passing, there's no question Gilda was the love of his life, and when he joins her in heaven the jokes will flow."

GENE TALKS TO ENQUIRER

AS CONCERN over Gene's health grows, The ENQUIRER obtained what could be the last interview with the reclusive star. Here's his take on a variety of subjects:

■ Life with his dogs: "I fell down the stairs because of the dogs. I was putting them to bed and fell over them."

■ On living in Connecticut: "I love it here, it's quiet and peaceful."

■ On movies today: "The standard of movies is terrible."

■ On some of his favorite stars: "I love Leo DiCaprio, but he's been miscast ... (As for Brad Pitt), he's a good actor, but he wouldn't do the stuff I did, the comedies. He wouldn't be good at it either ... The English are my favorite. Anthony Hopkins. He's a great actor. I like Sean Connery, too." NE

Death Row guy gets to have ANOTHER last meal!

RICHARD Glossip has been granted more time to think about his upcoming execution — all the way until Sept. 30!

Glossip was twice convicted of ordering the 1997 murder of his boss, Barry Von Treese.

His case has been turned into a worldwide cause by actress Susan Sarandon and the nun she played in the film “Dead Man Walking,” Sister Helen Prejean.

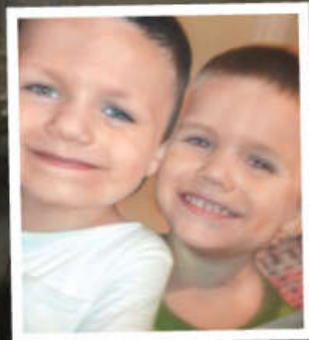

Glossip’s lawyer secured the stay from the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals by introducing an affidavit from another inmate who claimed Glossip’s co-defendant, Justin Sneed, admitted to setting him up to take the fall.

Glossip, 52, was sentenced to death solely on the testimony of Sneed, who received a life sentence in a deal with prosecutors.

The condemned man — exclusively interviewed on Death Row in the Oklahoma State Penitentiary by The National ENQUIRER — was eating his last meal of pizza, a burger and fish and chips when he heard the startling news just three hours before he was to be put to death via lethal injection!

These two kids were in those dirty 8x10-foot wooden containers

They were found in well-lit playhouses, says shop owner backing Brittany Mugrauer

TRUEcrime

MOM WHO KEPT KIDS IN CAVE ‘DID NO WRONG’

AKANSAS City mom has been busted for stashing her starving kids in wooden boxes deep within a cave while she was at work, but her boss said she’s wrongfully accused — those crates were just “play spaces!”

“These were well-lit playhouses in a well-kept shop!” Sean Dale, 41, the owner of the auto repair shop where Brittany Mugrauer, 24, worked, told The National ENQUIRER in an exclusive interview.

The business is housed in the same former limestone mine where the two boys — just 6 and 4 — were found hungry and unattended in dirt-strewn containers on Sept. 14.

Mugrauer was charged with felony child endangerment and is scheduled to appear in court Oct. 7.

According to court documents obtained by The ENQUIRER, the reason police were on the scene was to investigate Sean’s “Underground Diesel” operation as a suspected “chop shop.”

That’s when shocked cops made the disturbing discovery of the two kids huddled in one of the crates in the back of the cave.

“The children were in the crate when officers arrived,” said Detective Penny Cole in the probable cause statement.

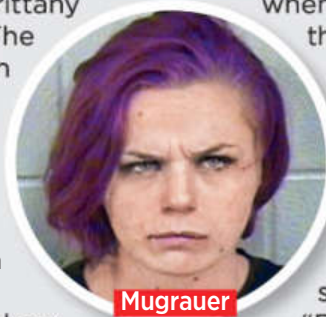

“The crates were just a play space for these kids,” said Sean. “Brittany was away for two hours to take me to the hospital when the police came in and made these crazy claims. My mechanics watched them the entire time.”

The detective described a horrifying scene — saying the 6-year-old was dressed in a dirty T-shirt and a pair of pants that were too long. His younger brother was in a short-sleeve shirt and shorts.

“Both were covered in dirt and filth from head to foot,” she said, adding the younger child was eating dry ramen noodles out of a cup filled with dirt.

The kids were hospitalized and are in the custody of child services. Mugrauer is forbidden to have any interaction with them without court supervision. NE

GLEN GOES HOME TO DIE!

RHINESTONE Cowboy singer Glen Campbell has taken his last ride!

Sources told The National ENQUIRER that the 79-year-old Alzheimer's disease-ravaged star was removed from a care facility by his fourth wife, Kim, and taken to their Nashville area home to live out his final days.

For the maker of such hits as "Gentle on My Mind" and "Wichita Lineman," a source said: "Sadly, it looks like the end of the line for Glen."

"Kim took him home because she frankly doesn't know how much longer she'll have left with him!"

In June, The ENQUIRER exclusively reported that Glen can no longer speak with the exception of mumbling "I love you."

Glen was diagnosed with the debilitating disease in 2011, and it's since progressed to the seventh and final stage, which sometimes causes him to lash out in fear.

Kim acknowledged: "He punched me in the eye and I had a black eye for two weeks. It's really hard to cope with. I know that's not him — it's just the Alzheimer's."

Two of Glen's oldest children — Debby Campbell-Cloyd, 58, Glen's daughter from his first wife, and Travis Campbell, 49,

Glen as he looked in L.A. in 2012

Glen's son from his second wife — had filed a petition in January to gain control of their dad's medical and financial decisions.

In April, the older children reached a tentative deal with their stepmother in which they were allowed to see Glen twice a month.

IF unlucky-in-love Sandra Bullock thinks her new hunky boyfriend is going to be good father material to her adopted son — she'd better think again!

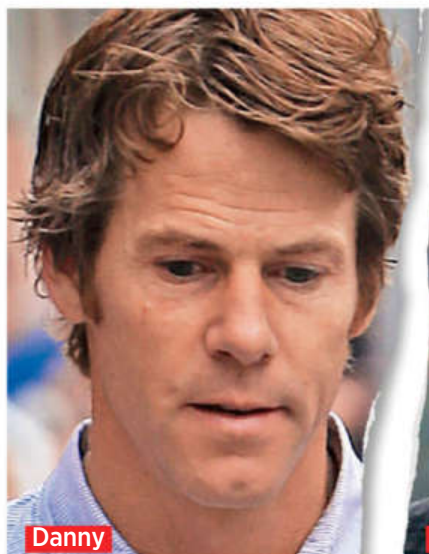

The National ENQUIRER has learned her handsome beau is a deadbeat dad who years ago cruelly abandoned his daughter in the hands of her heroin-addicted mother!

The ENQUIRER has learned that Sandra's new flame, Bryan Randall, 49, was in rehab for substance abuse while his fiancée, Janine Staten, was pregnant with their daughter Skylar back in the early 1990s. Bryan is a photographer and model with a bad-boy reputation much like that of her reality show biker and cheating ex-husband Jesse James.

Jesse broke her heart in 2010 and Sandra has recently been spotted with the rugged-looking Bryan, who has a dark history of alcohol and drug abuse and wild behavior.

He has even been spotted accompanying Sandra, 51, on the school run in Los Angeles, acting like a father figure to little Louis, who was adopted by the star as a baby.

Sandra hired Bryan to take photos of her son's fifth birth-

New home, new life

JULIA Roberts is making a drastic change — and heading straight for a secret split with her cameraman husband Danny Moder!

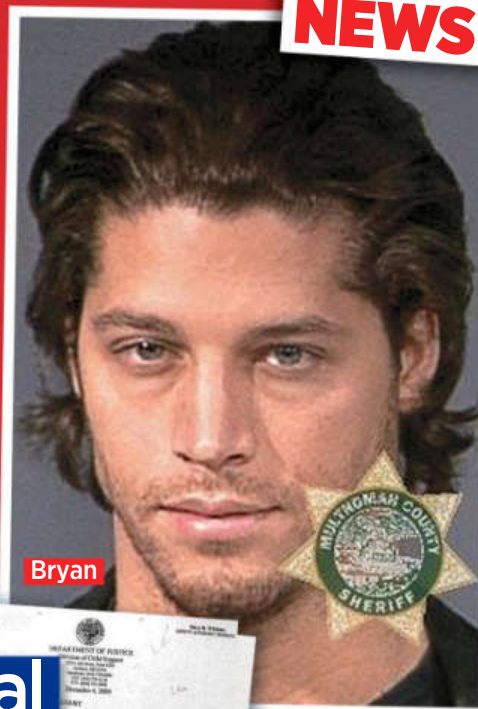

Julia, 47, is "fed up" with Danny after he's boycotted a string of family events, including her mother's funeral in Georgia, and her sister Lisa's birthday in New York City, insiders revealed to The National ENQUIRER.

A source said Julia plans to move with their three children — twins Hazel and Phinnaeus, 10, and son Henry, 8 — to a home in Santa Barbara, Calif., while Danny remains at their Malibu house.

A source close to Julia said: "He may be good with the kids but Julia feels he just day party in January and their relationship has been going hot and heavy ever since.

Bryan abandoned Skylar when "the relationship went on the rocks" leaving the toddler with her mother, who was a raging heroin addict!

Janine's close friend Eric Engelbach told The ENQUIRER that she would never talk about Bryan because "he was never in the picture."

Bryan's own battle with drugs was confirmed by numerous sources, including a relative who spoke on agreement of anonymity, saying:

"Just like Janine, he got caught up in the wrong world but I am so impressed he's kicked the habit."

Bryan, however, didn't pay to support his daughter. Legal documents obtained exclusively by The ENQUIRER from an Oregon court show Bryan was ordered to pay $187 a month. A judge also ruled he must pay $1,870 in past support.

Meanwhile, Skylar was exposed to horrible conditions when Janine shacked up with a married Michael Blankenship, a self-confessed addict and dope dealer with a criminal past that includes arrests for heroin possession and robbery, according to police and court documents obtained by The ENQUIRER.

isn't there for her emotionally anymore.

"About three weeks ago, she hit the roof when he was a no-show at her sister's birthday party. His excuse was he was too busy with work."

As The ENQUIRER previously reported, Julia was privately crushed by her husband's decision to skip her mother's memorial service in Smyrna, Ga., on May 30, even though she told friends and family it was "fine" that Danny stayed in Malibu for their son Finn's baseball game.

"It was a real slap in the face," a source divulged. "I don't see how any marriage could recover from such a slight."

Julia's mom, Betty Lou Bredemus, 80, died on Feb. 19 after a long battle with cancer.

Julia, who's worth a whopping $140 million, has also helped out her husband by kicking in money to boost his career as a cameraman, an insider claimed.

"Julia's done numerous projects with Danny to help him get a leg up in the industry," said the insider. NE

Wow! A Simple to Use Computer Designed Especially for Seniors!

Easy to read. Easy to see. Easy to use. Just plug it in!

"I love this computer! It is easy to read and to use! I get photo updates from my children and grandchildren all the time."

– Janet F.

Have you ever said to yourself "I'd love to get a computer, if only I could figure out how to use it." Well, you're not alone. Computers were supposed to make our lives simpler, but they've gotten so complicated that they are not worth the trouble. With all of the "pointing and clicking" and "dragging and dropping" you're lucky if you can figure out where you are. Plus, you are constantly worrying about viruses and freeze-ups. If this sounds familiar, we have great news for you. There is finally a computer that's designed for simplicity and ease of use. It's the WOW Computer, and it was designed with you in mind. This computer is easy-to-use, worry-free and literally puts the world at your fingertips. From the moment you open the box, you'll realize how different the WOW Computer is. The components are all connected; all you do is plug it into an outlet and your high-speed Internet connection. Then you'll see the screen – it's now 22 inches. This is a completely new touch screen system, without the cluttered look of the normal computer screen. The "buttons" on the screen are easy to see and easy to understand. All you do is touch one of them, from the Web, Email, Calendar to Games– you name it... and a new screen opens up. It's so easy to use you won't have to ask your children or grandchildren for help. Until now, the very people who could benefit most from E-mail and the Internet are the ones that have had the hardest time accessing it. Now, thanks to the WOW Computer, countless older Americans are discovering the wonderful world of the Internet every day. Isn't it time

BILL Cosby had his only son murdered after the boy threatened to reveal disgusting details of the comic's sordid sex life!

That's the shocking claim in an explosive book manuscript exclusively obtained by The National ENQUIRER. The tell-all, titled "Cosby's Love Child," was written by Jewel Star, the aunt of Cosby's illegitimate daughter Autumn Jackson.

While Cosby stares down potential rape and drug charges for serial sex crimes against young women, he's now faced with what may be an outrageous allegation: The evil schemer ordered his own son gunned down to prevent the unmasking of Cosby's love child, a young woman who believes she was also targeted by assassins!

According to the book,

Autumn told Jewel, "Cosby might have had Ennis murdered because he had found out about me!"

Ennis Cosby, 27, was shot and killed Jan. 16, 1997, in what was believed to be a robbery attempt. Police arrested Mikhail Markhasev, a Ukrainian immigrant with possible mafia connections, only after The ENQUIRER posted a $100,000 reward for information leading to the killer's arrest.

Two days after Ennis was found dead, Autumn was arrested for trying to extort ►

$40 million from the comic in exchange for a promise not to go public with his paternity. Also arrested were Jose "Yosi" Medina, the alleged mastermind of the extortion plot, and another Russian named Boris Saban.

During the following days, Jewel asked Autumn if she knew anything about Ennis' murder and if the cases were somehow connected.

Autumn told her: "After hearing the reports about Ennis, we saw a strange car in the parking lot below Yosi's room. Yosi said Cosby had sent an assassin after me, because I was about to tell my story. I was scared for my life!

"Yosi told us there were hitmen in the car below just waiting for me to come outside. A man knocked on the door, and we all freaked out. He said he was from room service, but we knew he wasn't. We wouldn't open the door."

JEWEL'S BOOK questions who ordered Markhasev to kill Ennis and how that slaying was linked to the foiled extortion plot.

Cosby, 78, has admitted to having sex with Autumn's mother, Shawn Upshaw, and paying both Autumn and Shawn more than $100,000 over 20 years.

In a 2005 interview with The ENQUIRER, Cosby insisted Autumn never submitted to a blood test, as he did, to prove or disprove a father-daughter relationship.

Jewel and her husband posted the $250,000 bond needed to keep Autumn out of prison after she was arrested for her part in the extortion.

Jewel's bombshell tell-all also floats an alternative theory, further espoused by Autumn after her arrest, about who could have ordered Markhasev to kill Ennis.

With the plan to extort Cosby souring, Autumn told her aunt that Medina told her the night before Ennis died, "there was a person sitting in a restaurant, and that someone was going to be taken care of by the morning."

Autumn told Jewel: "I didn't know what that meant, but

THE $400M STAR FACES LOSING HIS F

BILL Cosby stands to lose so much money in the sexual assault lawsuits filed against him that his insurance company, AIG, is trying to cut the disgraced comedian loose. The National ENQUIRER has learned.

Cosby has asked a federal judge to dismiss — or at least put on hold — a lawsuit from his insurance firm, which is seeking to avoid paying for his defense.

AIG sued Cosby in June in both Massachusetts and California over homeowners' insurance policies it issued to him in those states.

While they indicate Cosby is covered for "defamation," they won't insure him for personal-injury claims arising from "sexual, physical or mental abuse."

Cosby is currently being sued by three women in Massachusetts — Tamara Green, Therese Serignese and Linda Tritz — and at least one in California, model Janice Dickinson.

He's been publicly accused by many, many more.

"There's no telling how many more women could file civil actions, and without insurance to cover the possible payout of damages, that was the first thing we thought of when we heard the news about Ennis.”

Autumn eventually was sentenced to 26 months in prison and served 14 months before her extortion conviction was overturned.

this could very well bankrupt him,” a source told The ENQUIRER.

Cosby’s lawyers argued in court documents: “Not only does AIG’s action bolster the underlying plaintiffs, but it splits Mr. Cosby’s focus and drains his resources.”

I was DRUGGED too, says mom of LOVE CHILD

THE mother of Bill Cosby’s love child, Autumn Jackson, has said she, too, was a victim!

Shawn Upshaw claimed she was drugged before he performed sex on her, according to an exclusive 2005 interview with her in The National ENQUIRER.

“One night I went to see him at the Beverly Hills mansion he was renting during the filming of the movie ‘Uptown Saturday Night.’ He fixed me a drink that looked strange to me — there were several layers of color to it,” Shawn revealed.

“I didn’t want to drink it but he kept telling me to finish it, and I did. I immediately felt very out of sorts,” she said. “I knew definitely that I had been heavily drugged. I was completely disoriented and feeling faint. Finally, he took me to the bedroom and put me to sleep.”

“That’s the last I remember of the night — but I woke up in the morning knowing I’d had sex during my sleep,” Shawn added. “It seems Bill has the same drill he pulls on women.”

Cosby’s lawyer John Schmitt said at the time that Shawn was “thoroughly discredited. These statements now by her are ridiculous. They’re complete nonsense.”

But Shawn argued: “When I was involved with Bill, he threatened me and warned me that he’d never forgive me if I ruined his reputation.” NE

GANGLY GOODMAN!

JOHN Goodman’s drastic weight loss has jaws dropping — and friends fear the formerly hefty 63-year-old actor is dealing with secret health issues.

The “Roseanne” star was recently spotted looking deathly pale and significantly slimmer, almost like a different person. Many factors could lead to a dramatic drop in poundage — John’s TV wife, Roseanne Barr, had gastric bypass surgery in 1998 — but concerned insiders told The ENQUIRER they fear the worst.

Goldie & Kurt REUNITE!

THE wedding's off, but Kurt Russell and Goldie Hawn "are together again," The National ENQUIRER has learned.

Just months after The ENQUIRER reported Goldie walked out on partner Kurt after 32 years, the couple emerged together in non-wedded bliss.

"Kurt begged Goldie to come back," an insider said. "He said he'd be lost in life without her."

It worked, as this ENQUIRER photo shows the pair cozy and all smiles, with Goldie holding onto clean-shaven Kurt's arm.

As we previously reported, Kurt triggered the earlier bust-up by slapping the bouncy blonde with a "marry me or set me free" ultimatum last Christmas.

"A lasting relationship isn't about marriage," Goldie explained. "It's about compatibility and communication."

JUSTIN & JESSICA WANT TO EXPAND THE BAND!

JUSTIN Timberlake and Jessica Biel are getting ready to add another baby to their act!

"Jessica and Justin just welcomed Silas into the family five months ago, and they're already anxious to have another child!" an insider told The ENQUIRER.

Married for three years, the former boy band idol, 34, and his 33-year-old leading lady have taken to parenthood like ducks to water.

"They're in a great place and love raising kids!" said a source close to the pair.

Justin was hesitant to be a dad at first, but insiders have reported he's "all in on the idea."

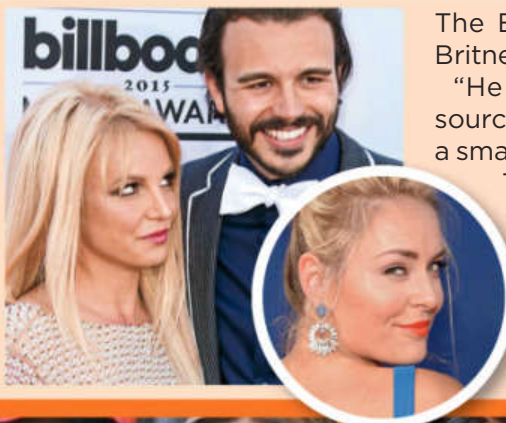

Said the source: "Jessica hasn't said she's pregnant yet, but everyone in their inner circle is saying it's only a matter of time!"

BRITNEY'S EX FINDS LOVE WITH LINDSEY VONN!

BURIED in blowback for bad-mouthing former squeeze Britney Spears, Charlie Eberzol has nailed another national treasure — Lindsey Vonn!

"Charlie went from A-list to everyone's S-list after he dissed Brit in Hollywood," said a source close to the stars.

The TV producer, 32, was deluged with hate mail and by slammed industry doors after

The ENQUIRER reported his Britney backstabbing in June.

"He needed to act fast," a source said. "And Lindsey was a smart choice."

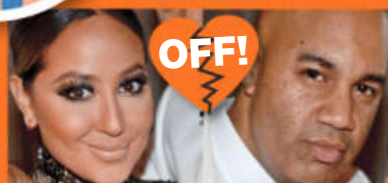

Tiger Woods' ex is revered for her Olympic skiing triumphs, and sources said Charlie relentlessly pursued her to look like a good guy again.

RUINED RENÉE!

BRIDGET Jones may be returning to the big screen, but the adorable Renée Zellweger who made her famous won't EVER be back, according to top cosmetic surgeons consulted by The National ENQUIRER!

New images of Renée in London shooting scenes for "Bridget Jones' Baby" have medical experts agreeing that her recent dramatic transformation means she'll never look the part again.

"She clearly has had extensive work done," said Dr. Lyle Back, a New Jersey-based plastic surgeon who has not treated the 46-year-old Renée. "But the result is that she's lost the look that America fell in love with!"

Renée shocked the world when she appeared almost unrecognizable on the red carpet in Hollywood last October. The star dismissed the plastic surgery rumors as "silly," but a year later, surgeons believe Renée has permanently altered her appearance — and will never recover her signature look.

"I see signs of a facelift that has made her face look much less puffy, less rectangular and less tomboyish," added Dr. Back. "Now she's not the girl that people identify with!"

Dr. Back said he believes that Renée also had a nose job and "has had some way overdone lip filler treatments and micro-needling facial treatments."

While the surgeon feels the work she had done is of high quality, it could play a destructive role in her career.

"The goal of plastic surgery is to make you look better — not unrecognizable," he said. "Bridget Jones is gone forever."

AMERICA'S sweetheart Meg Ryan is furious that "Uptown Girl" Christie Brinkley stepped out in public with her ex, "Pink Houses" rocker John Mellencamp, The National ENQUIRER has learned.

"Meg's been smarting ever since they broke up, and had hopes that they might eventually get back together," said a close pal. "Now it looks as if Christie's putting a move on her man. It's like a slap in the face!"

AFAMILY wedding has patched up the huge rift between Queen of Southern cuisine Paula Deen and her tugboat captain husband, sources told The National ENQUIRER.

"Paula is hosting the wedding of her husband's son at her Savannah home," said a family friend, "and things have taken a definite turn for the better for the two of them."

As The ENQUIRER has reported, the new "Dancing with the Stars" contestant, 68, and her 59-year-old husband, Michael Groover, seemed headed for a messy $100 million divorce even though Paula had attempted to set the stage for an amicable split.

the grizzled 63-year-old rocker leaving a New York hotel hit the news on Sept. 14.

"The two spent about an hour together, then left in Mellencamp's chauffeured car," another source said. "The singer was affectionate toward Brinkley, touching the small of her back as he walked behind her."

And Christie was all smiles!

As The ENQUIRER previously reported, the on-again, off-again couple split over Meg's determination to make John move to New York.

He got along great with Meg's 23-year-old son, Jack. Meg also has an adopted daughter, Daisy, who turns 11 in November. But John loved his rustic property outside of Bloomington, Ind.

"John finally agreed to move, but it's been one thing after another since," a friend told The ENQUIRER. "When they looked at apartments and Meg thought one was perfect, he would find something wrong with it!"

The unlikely duo first hooked up in 2010 after the "Jack & Diane" singer ditched model Elaine Irwin, his wife of 18 years.

At times John and Meg appeared headed straight for the altar, despite his three divorces and her messy split from Dennis Quaid 10 years earlier.

Christie, who was famously married to "Piano Man" Billy Joel for nine years, has been solo since she divorced third husband Peter Cook in 2008.

She has three children: Alexa Ray, 29, Jack, 20, and Sailor, 17.

"I know Meg harbored hopes she and John would get back together, no matter where they lived," added the pal, "and I'm sure she thought John felt the same way. But now it looks as if he's truly moved on."

Paula's marriage had been rocked by reports that he had a longtime secret mistress, as The ENQUIRER exclusively revealed in 2013. Michael had carried on an intimate relationship with a sexy, middle-aged brunette who has known his family for years, according to Savannah sources.

He reportedly visited the other woman's house as "regular as clockwork," and the illicit lovers even went to local bars together.

"It was no secret that Michael was having an affair," dished a shocked resident.

"It went on for more than a year — and the only surprise is that it took Paula so long to find out about it!"

Paula was ready to drag Michael into court and "was even willing to call Michael's mistress as a witness!" said a source.

But Paula has relented due to the death of Michael's ex-wife, Josephine Groover, and the upcoming wedding of their son Anthony Groover.

Josephine died in August at age 59, two months before the planned Oct. 10 wedding of her son Anthony's wedding to Ashley Rich. NE

Vet is reunited with the wallet he lost in the heat of battle 70 years ago!

Eligio with his long-lost wallet; inset, the kind Dr. Ruckhofer who found the billfold

‘People are really good at heart. It’s a MIRACLE!’

AN AMERICAN veteran who lost his wallet on a farm in Austria during World War II more than 70 years ago has been reunited with the billfold — and the treasured family photos inside — thanks to the kind heart and detective skills of a descendant of the farm’s owner!

Eligio Ramos, of Fresno, Calif., now 91, was serving in the 250th Field Artillery in 1945 when a farmer in Salzburg, Austria, offered him and his exhausted band of brothers a safe place to sleep in his home.

It wasn’t until the next day, when Eligio and his battalion had already moved on, that he realized he’d dropped his billfold during the night — and he couldn’t have been more distraught.

“Everything in the wallet is

of sentimental value,” said Eligio’s son Rosando. “He had a lot of pictures in case he didn’t make it back. He wanted to have his family with him.”

Nevertheless, Eligio went on with his duties, liberating prisoners and even witnessing the horrors of the concentration camp Dachau — all without the warm comfort of the familiar faces he brought from home.

But through an amazing stroke of luck, he actually was reunited with his wallet — and the never-forgotten photos.

Dr. Josef Ruckhofer, an eye doctor in Salzburg, recently came across the leather billfold while cleaning out the farmhouse he had inherited from his grandfather.

With the help of Eligio’s military ID, he wrote the family a letter telling them of his discovery.

Eligio was in Fresno, Calif., with daughter Sylvia Gonzalez when she came upon the letter. They contacted Dr. Ruckhofer, and the family is now framing the photos for future generations.

“It proves people are really good at heart,” said a family friend. “It’s a miracle.” NE

PREZ HOPEFUL'S VIOLENT RAGES & FITS OF PARANOIA ARE EXPOSED IN EX

HILLARY Clinton is mentally unstable and unfit to become president of the United States — that's the explosive charge in a bombshell new book that will blow up her dreams of winning the White House!

Biographer Edward Klein's shocking tell-all, "Unlikeable — The Problem With Hillary" will not hit shelves until Sept. 28, but The National ENQUIRER was able to secure an advance copy before any other news outlet.

Edward learned from sources deep inside Clinton's inner circle that her campaign is covering up shockingly violent incidents from her time as secretary of state that prove how easily the 67-year-old former first lady became unhinged and exhibited violent psycho behavior!

In a stunning disclosure, Edward writes that Hillary accused President Barack Obama himself of leaking stories about her email server to the media, demanding that the commander-in-chief "Call off your f*cking dogs!"

Hillary suffers from "paranoia," according to Edward, and "would order high-ranking deputies and under secretaries to leave the room

'Hillary threw a glass of water across her office & sent shards flying!'

in the middle of meetings because she suspected them of being spies."

She erupted "in rages," Edward claimed, citing a phone argument with top presidential adviser Valerie Jarrett in which "Hillary threw a heavy water glass across her office and sent shards flying."

Another time, while fighting on the phone with the president, "She took her right arm and cleared off her small working desk, sending pictures, glasses crashing."

At home, Edward said her husband, former President Bill Clinton, 69, trashed her in verbal attacks that left daughter Chelsea accusing him of "bullying" her mother.

The author said cruel Bill went so far as to tell Hillary she looked old and should "get a face-lift."

Stung by the criticism, Hillary hired a New York plastic surgeon to perform procedures in secret at their Chappaqua, N.Y., home, away from the eyes of the media.

Nevertheless, Bill told her she's a "highly unlikeable" candidate.

So the highly charismatic former prez arranged for her to get "likeability lessons" from their longtime Hollywood pal, director Steven Spielberg.

Hillary sends videos of herself to the blockbuster director who apparently has teams of coaches critique her to make her better on the campaign trail.

The couple, nonetheless,

HOMEWRECKER CARLY LIED ABOUT DRUGGIE DAUGHTER!

UPSTART Republican candidate Carly Fiorina is a homewrecker who tried to score votes by playing the sympathy card at the Sept. 16 national debate by dramatically declaring that she "buried a child to drug addiction."

The National ENQUIRER has exclusively learned that Lori Ann Fiorina, who died in October 2009, was in fact Carly's stepdaughter ... and she was brought up not by Carly but by her biological mom, Patricia Fiorina, whose marriage allegedly was wrecked by the 61-year-old White House hopeful who is determined to knock Donald Trump from his superior front-runner status!

The ENQUIRER uncovered that Carly's first husband, Todd Bartlem, charged that Carly cheated on him with Lori's dad, Frank Fiorina, who at the time was married to Patricia. Carly is a "pathological" spin artist, he claimed.

continue to fight with each other every chance they get.

Klein writes that after The ENQUIRER reported last January that Bill flew around the world with a twisted pedophile, Jeffrey Epstein, and his teenage girlfriend she stormed into his office, slammed a glass sculpture to the floor and shouted: "This can be as bad as the (Monica) Lewinsky mess. How can you be so smart and so f--king dumb?"

- SHARON CHURCHER

ENQUIRER reveal that Frank filed for divorce from Patricia in 1981 — the year he met Carly!

The records show that Carly sued Todd for divorce two years later. She married Frank in 1985, when public records give Lori's age as 10.

When The ENQUIRER reached Todd for comment about Carly, he raged: "I got rid of that liar in my life. You can have her!"

AFTER multimillionaire White House hopeful Jeb Bush told Americans they "need to work longer hours," his troubled daughter, Noelle, has been caught by The National ENQUIRER loafing on the job!

Exclusive photos obtained by The ENQUIRER show the 38-year-old taking three smoke breaks in just five hours!

The Sept. 9 pictures were shot outside the Orlando, Fla., offices of Empower Software Solutions, where her duties are listed as answering phones and office support and management.

"Noelle, a former druggie, appears overweight and dowdily dressed. I saw her slumped on the back steps puffing on one Marlboro cigarette — one after another," an eyewitness told The ENQUIRER.

In 2002 The ENQUIRER revealed that Noelle was busted for prescription fraud, sent to rehab and then served two separate stints in jail.

A Florida political insider told The ENQUIRER Noelle's current job was arranged with the help of Empower Software founder Seth Bernstein, a longtime Jeb supporter who is raising money for his presidential bid.

"The job was a favor to Jeb. She doesn't really have to do much work. She spends quite a bit of the day outside, chain-smokin'," said the insider.

"Jeb is big on campaigning on family values, but Noelle is one of his weak spots. When she was a teenager, his marriage nearly fell apart. He was rumored to be off womanizing and (his wife) Columba was spending a lot of her time shopping," noted the insider. "You might ask, who was at home raising the kids?" NE

Bombshell new claim: Bruises on her body came from powerful injections

EXCLUSIVE

ATOP Hollywood private eye believes beloved screen siren Natalie Wood was drugged and pushed to her watery grave!

In another stunning revelation, the coroner who originally examined her body, Dr. Thomas Noguchi, suspected even then that poor drowned Natalie had been knocked out by an injection!

Former Chicago cop-turned-PI Paul Huebl has exclusively claimed to The National ENQUIRER that investigators have ignored a vital clue in the 33-year-old case: high levels of a powerful painkiller, pro-

Paul Huebl

NATALIE WOOD 'KNOCKED OUT BY DRUGS BEFORE SHE DIED'

oxyphene, in the "West Side Story" star's system.

THE SENSATIONAL claim has exploded the investigation into whether the 43-year-old actress was murdered by her abusive husband, Robert Wagner, on their yacht, "Splendour," on Nov. 29, 1981.

Experts originally ignored the presence of the drug because they found a prescription for it among her effects after her body was found.

But Paul, who forensically reviewed Natalie's autopsy report, told The ENQUIRER the amount of propoxyphene in her body was far higher than she would have been expected to voluntarily swallow.

"The reading was .07 mg, which was well over the therapeutic level," Paul revealed. "She had also taken cyclizine, which is a motion sickness drug. And she had a blood-alcohol reading of .14, which is almost twice the legal limit for drunkenness.

"The drugs alone would have made her drowsy, but combined with the alcohol, which she had been ingesting all weekend, and her sleepy state, she would have been vulnerable to a surprise attack. It would have been more than sufficient for the perfect murder," Paul charged.

"Splendour" Capt. Dennis Davern has said foul play was involved in Natalie's death, and has directly implicated Wagner, saying the actor fought with Natalie just before she vanished.

Investigators reopened the case in 2011, and a year later changed Natalie's cause of death from "accidental drowning" to "drowning and other under-terminated factors."

L.A. County Sheriff's Department Homicide Bureau Lt. John Corina told The ENQUIRER Wagner is not a suspect in the case, but is classified as a "person of interest."

Wagner has long maintained he did not fight with his wife and did not kill her.

CONFIRMING PAUL'S findings, celebrity funeral home worker Allan Abbott has told The ENQUIRER Dr. Noguchi made ugly incisions on Natalie's body during the autopsy, trying to determine if her bruising was caused by injections.

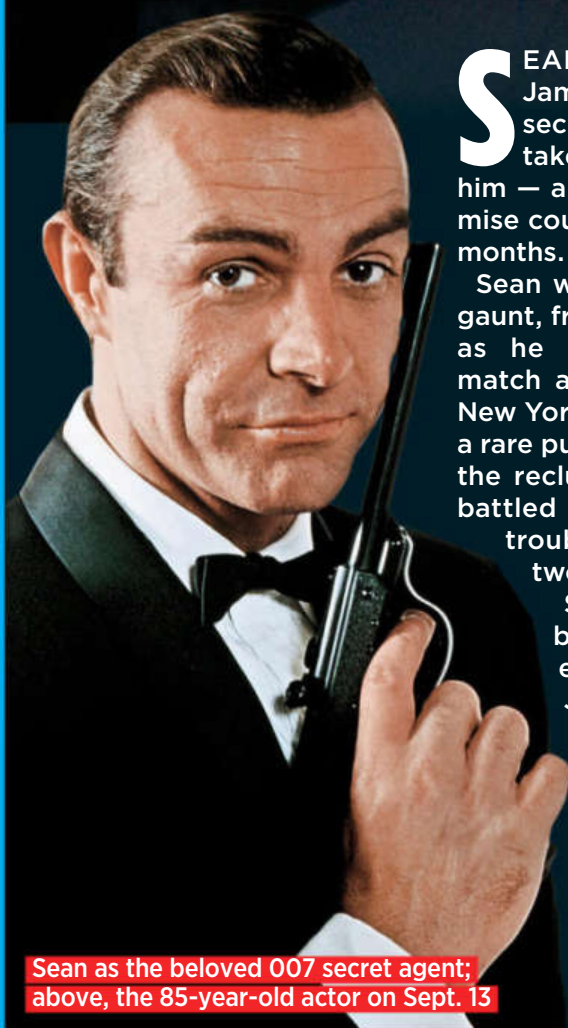

"She was embalmed by the funeral director, Bill Pierce," Allan said. "They had an open casket, and he told me on the day of the funeral that they had to put her in the silver fox coat to cover up all the butchering [from] looking for injection points.

What's more, "the bruises were all fresh bruises, indicating that they occurred at or near time of death — and not after she entered the water," world-renowned forensic pathologist Dr. Bill Manion told The ENQUIRER after analyzing Dr. Noguchi's autopsy report.

"Dr. Noguchi did a very careful autopsy, and I believe he looked for injection sites and took the skin to see how old or fresh the bruises were, which indicates to me that he was suspicious."

BITTER BOND DYING!

*Oversexed and underpaid,
Connery hated playing 007*

Sean as the beloved 007 secret agent;
above, the 85-year-old actor on Sept. 13

SEAN Connery hates James Bond! That's the secret the star, 85, will take to the grave with him — and pals fear his demise could come within just months.

Sean was spotted looking gaunt, frail and ashen-faced as he watched a tennis match at the U.S. Open in New York on Sept. 13. It was a rare public appearance for the reclusive star, who has battled a host of medical troubles over the past two decades.

Sean has also battled the producers of the seven James Bond films he starred in from 1962 to 1983. He remains rankled over the fact that he received a total of just $3 million to play the iconic secret agent — while the film franchise has gone on to become worth $1.6 billion in the U.S. alone!

Though he's revered by fans as the best of the James Bonds for his work in such films as "Dr. No" and "Goldfinger," in 2012 Sean refused to take part in promoting the release of a 23-disc collection of all the Bond films up to that point, while his successors in the role — among them Roger Moore and Pierce Brosnan — willingly collaborated.

"He felt he was never well financially rewarded for his early work and, after his departure, his work was used to generate tens of millions of dollars," a source said of Sean.

Though happy about the fame and success the films provided, he remains bitter about how he was treated. "I have always hated that damned James Bond," Sean said. "I'd like to kill him." NE

KIM K CONNECTS WITH DEAD DAD ROBERT USING PSYCHIC!

KIM Kardashian misses her deceased father, Robert Kardashian, so much she's now regularly going to a channeler who claims to bring him through from the spirit realm!

The 34-year-old pregnant star said this is giving her closure, but some family members think she's being duped. But for the sake of Kim's well-being, her sisters and mother, Kris, are going with the flow, friends said.

"Kim is a new person since her trip to Armenia and connecting with her roots," said a pal.

"She felt a spiritual connection to the Armenian people and particularly to her family ancestry. She got in touch with a channeler and wants to revisit the family tree through the psychic to keep in touch with her father, Bob, and receive his guidance."

Kim was 23 when she lost her father

Kanye West's wife has told friends she believes she was born a princess and her father was a king in another life. In real life, Robert was a top attorney who represented O.J. Simpson.

"Kim's mother and sisters aren't happy about her new hobby," said the friend. "But they want Kim to have a peaceful pregnancy."

Kim and Kanye are expecting baby No. 2 in December.

"I know that if my dad were here he'd be so happy about our family," Kim told a friend.

"He'd be a great grandfather and he would play with his grandchildren. I'd ask the psychic about what my dad thinks of our lives and if he's proud of all of us."

"I know in my heart that he would support the Armenian people, and he would support my family. But I want to know the truth."

Slimmed-down Khloé reshapes her jawline!

KHLOÉ Kardashian's jaw-dropping glam-gal makeover continues!

The newly svelte bombshell has reshaped her jawline and plumped up her kisser, revealed insiders.

"She wanted a thinner-looking face to go with her newly sleek physique," a source told The National ENQUIRER.

"She timed procedures so people would assume her face looks more delicate and well-defined due to weight loss."

Khloé, who's always cringed over her reputation as the "big Kardashian," now turns heads worldwide thanks to her statuesque, goddess-like figure.

Despite having lost several inches off her waist in a few months, Khloé, 31, still wished her face looked slimmer.

"She's become obsessed with her looks," said the insider.

"Khloé very rapidly lost 15 pounds, and now her waist is the tiniest it's been! She was determined to have her face match her thin body."

"So when she made an appointment for her lip injections a few weeks ago, she asked for time to talk about Botox options along her jawline."

Khloé's 2011 jaw is now more defined

That's not all Khloé's been doing to improve her face, revealed the source.

"She also does facial exercises to enhance the look of her cheekbones!" said the insider. "She's extremely dedicated to looking great!"

KENDALL FUMES AS HER BODY IS INSURED FOR $10 MILLION!

MODEL Kendall Jenner's booty is about half the size of big sis Kim Kardashian's ballooning buttocks, but whose is worth more?

Kendall has joined the millionaire's body part club by getting her svelte body insured for a whopping $10 million — and insiders told THE ENQUIRER she thinks she's seriously undervalued!

Momager Kris set up the policy for her 19-year-old, but a family pal revealed that Kendall's starting to show her inner diva and feeling very competitive with Kim.

"Kendall is unhappy with the deal," the insider said. "She makes more than that in a year, so faced with a permanent end to her career, $10 million doesn't seem right ... not when Kim's butt is supposed to be insured for $20 million!"

"She's on track to take over from Kim as the superstar of the family and their rivalry has gotten out of control!"

According to the source, Kendall has every intention of earning more than Kim and being more famous than Kim — and for something other than a sex tape. NE

My hair was thinning

About a year ago I noticed my hair starting to fall out. I would find hairs in the shower and lots on my brush. It was so bad that my hair started to appear thin. This made me very concerned so I looked for solutions.

The pharmacist directed me to Hair Volume, a well-known hair product from Europe, that contains biotin, silica, millet and apple extract. I thought it sounded good, so I gave it a try.

IT WORKED FOR ME

Now I have been using it for 2 months and I am really happy with the product. It really works for me - I strongly recommend it".

BEAUTY FROM WITHIN

I had heard about the concept "beauty from within" and how nutrients could impact the health of my hair, so I went to my pharmacy and looked for hair supplements.

'Coward' who lusts after young girls

LITTLE jockey Victor Espinoza is a bigger stud than American Pharoah, the horse he rode to the Triple Crown in June.

The 5-foot-2 rider keeps his own stable of fillies, and sources said the 43-year-old likes 'em young and younger!

His horsing around got him in trouble when his fiancée, Stephanie Kunkel, 25, and girlfriend, Kelly Kovachick, 19, both showed up to watch his run in the Belmont Stakes! Kelly called him a "shameful coward."

Teen rebel all set to elope

BINDI Irwin, the only daughter of tragic crocodile hunter Steve Irwin, is now 17 — and ready to rip her family apart by eloping with her daredevil American boyfriend Chandler Powell, 18, sources told The ENQUIRER.

Bindi, who lives in Australia, is head-over-heels in love with the wakeboarder from Florida. Insiders said Bindi agreed to put her marriage on hold to join the show, where she's partnered with Derek Hough.

"We'll see what happens to the two lovebirds after her stint," said a family friend.

DARK SECRETS OF THE 'DA NEW

NOMINATED for an Oscar for his lead role in 1978's "The Buddy Holly Story," Gary Busey has become an infamous Hollywood wild man. He is paired with pro hoofer Anna Trebunskaya.

He joined Cocaine Anonymous in 1985, but fell off the wagon just three years later, crashing his motorcycle and suffering a major head injury.

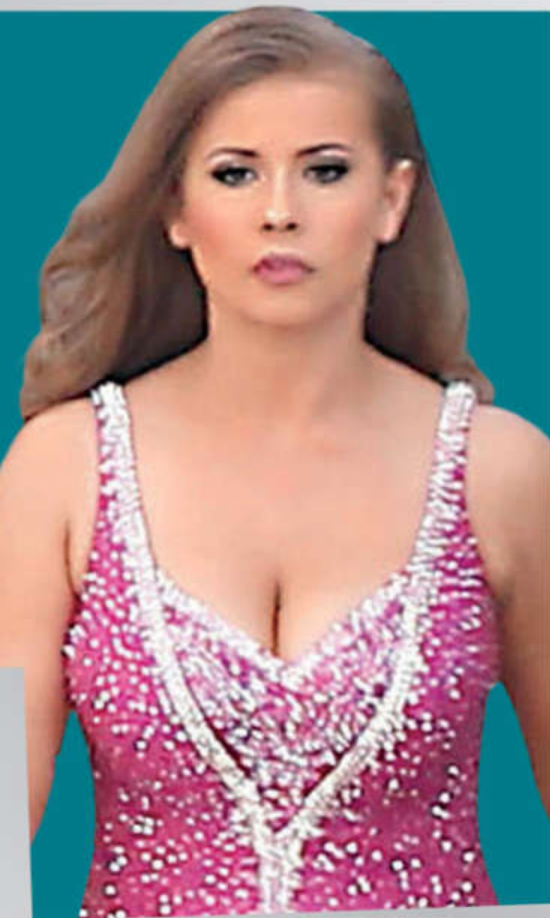

Gary, 71, survived a cocaine overdose in 1995, fought off cancer in 1997, but in 2012 he filed for bankruptcy, reporting just $50,000 in assets to meet $1 million in debts!

Cocaine, cancer & a mountain of debt

Battles with booze ... and the cops!

HE WAS a teen megastar with Backstreet Boys, but Nick Carter, 35, has gone on to a life full of scandal and heartbreak. He was arrested for resisting an officer without violence at a Tampa, Fla., nightclub in 2002 — and busted again in a March 2005 DUI stop.

Insiders told The ENQUIRER he had been drinking heavily after his romance with Paris Hilton ended. Three months after the DUI arrest, he was ordered into an alcohol treatment program. Now he's hoping to relive his glory days with partner Sharna Burgess.

Haunted by vicious beatings

THE “Queen Of Funk,” Chaka Khan, suffered brutal beatings at the hands of her second husband. The Grammy-winning singer, 62, married the abusive Richard Holland in 1976, with the marriage ending in a bitter fight when she was eight months pregnant with her second child.

Chaka claimed her enraged spouse — the man for whom she wrote her hit song, “Sweet Thing” — punched her above the eye and caused her to bleed. The proud pop star finally decided to fight back: “I went for (a) shotgun, loaded it, pulled the trigger,” she said. “I missed him ...”

“I called the cops and made like there was an intruder in the house,” Chaka admitted. The couple divorced in 1980. Now she’s dancing with Keo Motsepe.

DANCING' STARS!

One scandal after another

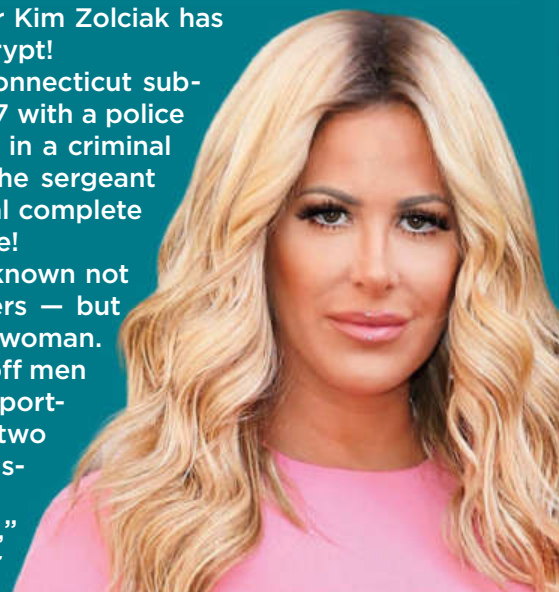

FORMER “Real Housewives of Atlanta” star Kim Zolciak has more skeletons in her closet than a family crypt!

She was a good Catholic girl from the Connecticut suburbs, but she got romantically involved at 17 with a police sergeant who interviewed her as a witness in a criminal investigation. The infamous affair forced the sergeant into retirement and ignited a roiling scandal complete with sexual impropriety, cover-ups and more!

If that weren't enough, the bombshell is known not only for catfights with fellow cast members — but also a shocking bisexual affair with another woman.

But maybe she had good cause to swear off men at the time. As The ENQUIRER previously reported, Kim's first husband and father of her two daughters, Daniel Dominic Toce, was imprisoned for molesting a 15-year-old girl.

And even though it's early on “DWTS,” Kim's already living up to her reputation! NE

ALL NEW! Your HEALTH

NEWS
ALWAYS USE!

DON'T BE A DUMB JOCK

SPORTS and exercise are great if you don't kill yourself in the process. Sports injuries are common — but can be avoided. Make sure you wear the proper gear — never bike without a helmet or run without proper shoes. Remember to stretch before you overextend yourself in any activity. Make sure you build up to extreme levels of exercise and know your limits while you do. Finally, make sure you give any injury time to heal. Pushing yourself too hard when you're hurt can only make things worse!

Is Alzheimer's CONTAGIOUS?

AS IF the disease isn't scary enough, a new study says Alzheimer's may be infectious! Scientists have found the condition may be transmitted from one person to another during certain medical procedures. The safety of some procedures, including blood transfusions and invasive dental treatment, are now being scrutinized as a result of the study published in the journal "Nature." Scientists stressed the data should not prevent anyone from having necessary surgeries.

FROZEN FOODS HOT CHOICE FOR DIETS!

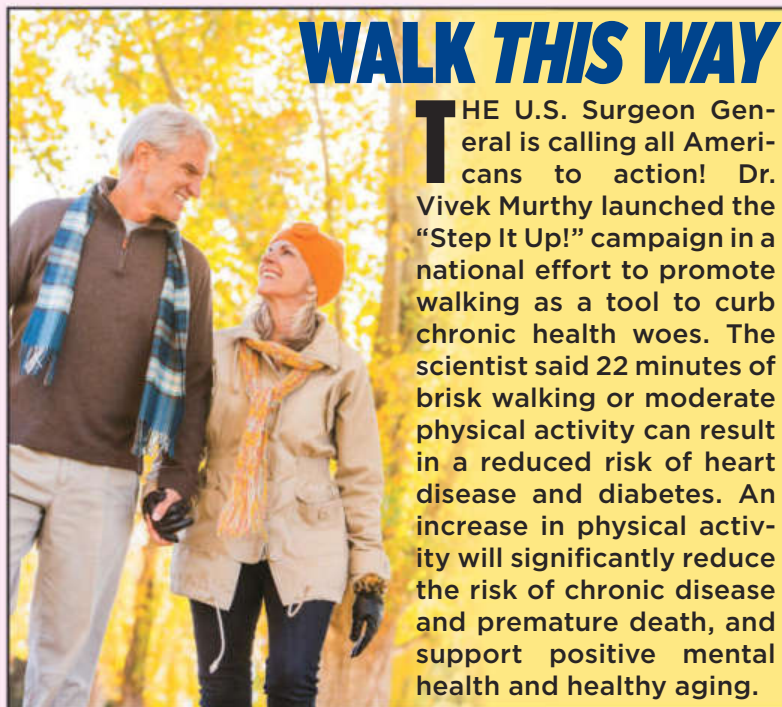

LOOKING for healthy options while you lose weight? The answer might be as close as your freezer! "The biggest advantage of frozen meals is portion control," said Dr. Jessica Bartfield, an internist at Gottlieb Memorial Hospital in Melrose Park, Ill., who said all the nutritional and caloric information you need can be found on the side of the package. An added bonus: food options are packaged so your hunger is satisfied — making it less likely you'll overeat later in the day. Pretty cool, huh?

Don't shut down after summer!

SUMMER'S over, but shorter days and colder temperatures shouldn't keep you from being active. Dress a little warmer and you can still jog and bike into fall. Colder temps offer skiing, snowboarding and hiking to help maintain your heart rate and build endurance and muscle. Don't lose sight of a good diet just because you've packed away your swimsuit. Eat smart and you won't have to starve in the spring! And just because it's cold, don't forget to keep hydration high by downing four to six glasses of water a day!

BATTLE HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

LOWERING blood pressure limits the risk of serious heart problems and death in adults 50 and older, according to a recent government report. You can help yourself with these tips: 1. Lose extra weight 2. Get regular exercise. Just 30 minutes of cardio each day can lower blood pressure. 3. Eat healthy and keep a food diet. 4. Limit the booze. In small amounts, alcohol can lower blood pressure. One drink a day for men and women over 65 is recommended.

WALK THIS WAY

THE U.S. Surgeon General is calling all Americans to action! Dr. Vivek Murthy launched the "Step It Up!" campaign in a national effort to promote walking as a tool to curb chronic health woes. The scientist said 22 minutes of brisk walking or moderate physical activity can result in a reduced risk of heart disease and diabetes. An increase in physical activity will significantly reduce the risk of chronic disease and premature death, and support positive mental health and healthy aging.

This Doctor-Invented Affordable Hearing Aid Changed My Life. Here's How...

“Like many people, it took me a LONG time to admit I had some hearing loss. All signs were there: I'd accuse my husband of “mumbling,” I'd constantly turn up the TV volume, I'd sit silently with friends because I couldn't fully understand what they were saying.

Needless to say, this began to take a toll on our life together as I became more depressed and withdrawn. When our daughter suggested I get a hearing aid, I flared up and said NO WAY! I knew many friends who had gone for “free” hearing tests and ended up paying $3,000 or more on hearing aids. Even then, they had to keep going back to their audiologists for adjustments. That wasn't for me!

You have to hear it to believe it!

The MDHearingAid® AIR offers the same advanced technology and features of a $3,000 hearing aid — for 90% less.

Well, my daughter wouldn't take no for an answer and did some of her own research. She came back and said, “You've got to try the MDHearingAid AIR. It's developed by a board-certified doctor and it's a fraction of the cost.” A friend happened to be visiting and she already ordered from MDHearingAid. She raved about her experience — said the quality was fantastic, the prices were downright affordable and the few times she had questions, she just got on the phone and spoke with a hearing aid professional.

- ✓ People are no longer mumbling!
- ✓ Gave my social life a boost!
- ✓ Put the spark back in my marriage!
- ✓ I can enjoy time at church, with friends, and with my grandchildren!
- ✓ Saved me $3,000!

That was all I needed to hear. I called MDHearingAid and it was one of the best decisions I've ever made. The AIR worked right out of the box and quite honestly, it's changed my life. Now I can hear crystal clear even when we're out with friends, playing bridge, at the movies, and at church services. The best thing is, I can even hear my newest grandchild's soft cooing sounds. What a blessing!

I'm doing so well with MDHearingAid AIR that my husband got his own pair. He can hear great now too, and he and I are acting like lovebirds again. Thank you, MDHearingAid, for giving us back our life!”

Jan-Michael continues to improve after the amputation that threatened his life

JAN-Michael Vincent has a triumphant message for his fans just one year after The National ENQUIRER exposed the “amputation horror” that nearly cost him his life.

“I’m doing really good!”

The 71-year-old former “Airwolf” star has miraculously rebounded from the devastating blow of losing most of his right leg to complications of peripheral artery disease.

His third wife, Anna, told The ENQUIRER: “Jan-Michael has bounced back, and he’s moving forward!”

“He’s working hard, and getting really good with a walker. He’s practically running with it. Our goal is for him to walk without a cane. It feels like there’s light at the end of the tunnel!”

Jan-Michael Vincent BATTLES BACK!

As The ENQUIRER was first to report last October, the actor — ravaged by booze, drugs and violence — faced death when a medical crisis forced doctors to remove most of his right leg below the knee three years ago.

The surgery left him hooked up to life support and a ventilator.

But with Anna’s help, Jan-Michael learned to walk again with a prosthetic limb, although at times he was forced to use a wheelchair.

Jan-Michael continues to improve, and Anna gives credit to The ENQUIRER.

“The article put him back out there,” said Anna, who cares for the actor at their ranch home in Vicksburg, Miss.

Jan-Michael received letters from fans around the globe, Anna said, and she read them to him to boost his spirits.

STOP BITING YOUR NAILS!

It not only makes your fingers scary, it’s bad for your health!

IT’S a pesky habit worth breaking! “Some of us bite our nails mindlessly while watching TV or when deep in thought,” said Dr. Sanam Hafeez, a neuropsychologist in New York City. “But nail biting — or onychophagia — can be serious. Obsessive abuse can lead fingernail beds to bleed and become infected through the spread of bacteria.”

Here are some pointers to protect your fingers and put a nail into this nasty habit!

■ NEW DISTRACTIONS!

Replace a bad habit with a good one! When the urge to gnaw strikes, busy your hands with a Koosh ball or a nail file (in an appropriate setting) to keep your hands busy and your nails safe!

■ ONE NAIL AT A TIME

Choose one fingertip you will NOT attack. After a few days, compare it to the damaged digits. Repeat with two fingers, and then keep on going. After a few weeks, you’ll be so focused on this project that ALL of your nails will be safe!

■ GET GROOMED!

If you’re spending money on manicures, you’re less likely to destroy your nails. “Having your nails groomed and polished is a good reminder not to bite them,” said Dr. Hafeez.

■ A BITTER CURE

Nail polish is a safe and inexpensive over-the-counter remedy that tastes terrible, but that’s how it keeps your fingers out of your mouth. It’s not just for women, either. A clear polish can work for men!

■ TAKE A DEEP BREATH

“Nail biting is an obsessive-compulsive disorder related to anxiety,” said Dr. Hafeez. “Deep breathing when anxious will help you realize you’re doing it!”

■ SNAP YOURSELF SILLY!

Wrap a rubber band around your wrist. When you find yourself wanting to bite, snap the band so hard it stings! Soon, your brain will associate nail biting with pain.

■ CONSULT A PROFESSIONAL

If all else fails, your nail biting could be a sign of a more serious emotional disorder. It may be time to see a trained therapist. NE

J.Lo goes low

JENNIFER Lopez is tired of having her massive California mansion on the block! The diva moved into L.A.'s exclusive Hidden Hills community with her then-husband Marc Anthony in 2010.

Now the 46-year-old single mom of two is anxious to finally unload the sprawling estate — which sports nine bedrooms and eight full baths.

J.Lo has even lowered her original asking price of $14.2 million to a very affordable $8.2 million.

The property includes a separate servants' quarters, and the lucky new owners will also enjoy their own wine cellar, a private recording studio and a gym that doubles as a dance studio!

CAPED crusader

MOVE over, Kanye West — Antonio Banderas is going to fashion school!

"It's something that's been on my mind for a long time," said the 55-year-old actor, who's attending the prestigious Central Saint Martins school in London.

Antonio even has designs on getting men to look like his Zorro character by wearing capes!

"It's actually easier than a coat," he explained. "You walk into a place and just — BOOM! — throw it off!"

Judge-MENTAL!

ADAM Levine wants Blake Shelton to himself!

"The producers of 'The Voice' want the show's focus to be on Blake and Gwen Stefani's possible romance," a show insider told All The Buzz of the two judges, who announced their divorces this past summer. While Blake won't really hook up with Gwen, Adam is still getting jealous, sources said.

"They're both having fun faking flirting — but Adam's not happy with being pushed to the side!" said the insider. Adam insisted his relationship with Blake is why people tune in to their show.

Added the source: "He thinks the producers shouldn't mess with their 'bromance,' and hates that Gwen has come between them."

Oscar race!

THE battle to host this year's Oscars might as well be a dance-off, — with Justin Timberlake in the lead!

"The executives at ABC are really pushing for Justin," said an Academy Awards insider.

"He'll be the most difficult to sign, but they're desperate to get someone who'll pull in young viewers — without freaking out older Academy members!"

The close second choice is funnyman Steve Carell, and the source added that producers "still have Ellen DeGeneres and Steve Martin as fallbacks."

The spy also revealed the job typically pays $2 million for a commitment of several months — "but they're ready to pay more to get Justin on board!"

ENQUIRER legend retires!

From Elvis to O.J., tabloid journalism's greatest fact-checker is finally checking out! The National ENQUIRER's own beloved chief researcher, Mireya Throop, is retiring after a remarkable 37-year run. Teamed with vets Barbara Koskie and Laurie Miller, Mireya helped our reporters and editors get endless exclusives into print. Here's a final fact Mireya — we couldn't have done it without you! Thanks!

BITTER PILL

FEMINISTS are fuming over Ricki Lake's attack on birth control!

The former talk-show queen is about to begin production on a documentary that pans "the pill."

"It's making women sick," said Ricki, 47 — who's quickly losing female fans.

Said one activist: "She's setting women's liberation back to the days of Donna Reed!"

No bones about it — with an ace and an eight at the ready, this cadaverous cowboy is one lucky “stiff.” But in the rare event the odds are stacked against him, he’s got a pair of pistols that guarantees he wins every time!

Handcrafted in dreadfully delightful detail!

Boldly inspired by the original artwork of Blake Jensen, “Dead Man’s Hand” is crafted entirely by hand — from the gritty glare of his skulled poker face to his blood-red bandana and 10-gallon hat. Then, this Hamilton-exclusive figurine is carefully hand-painted. Plus, Master Artisans apply a special metallic finish for a silvery gleam that will get your pulse racing.

RACHEL MCADAMS

Today's hottest red carpet trend? See-through gowns — like this awesome embroidered Valentino that barely covers Rachel's undies.

KIERNAN SHIPKA

At 15, the "Mad Men" cutie is already a cutting edge fashionista. Her Delpozo frock is made of paper-blended fabric with cotton tulle.

JESSICA ALBA

Mom glam! While touting her Honest brand in NYC, Jessica pairs a retro Thakoon frock with $750 over-the-knee boots by Stuart Weitzman. Step into fall, and get Jessica's look for less, with the Lalani boot from ShoeDazzle.com at the VIP price of $42.95.

HEIDI KLUM

With legs like this, no wonder Heidi wants to show them off! She strikes a pose in an amazing Atelier Versace exposed corset gown.

JANE FONDA

Check out Jane's 68-carat diamond Chopard necklace! It's almost more blinding than her gold Yves Saint Laurent Couture gown.

NAOMI WATTS

No more tiers! Please! Rows of ruffles ruin Naomi's natural beauty.

... But you've gotta be kidding!

CRYPTOGRAM QUOTES

FAMOUS QUOTES FROM YOUR FAVORITE PEOPLE

Cryptograms are coded messages. To solve the Cryptogram, each coded letter must be replaced by the answer letter in the box overhead. When you solve the code for a letter, write the answer letter in the box everywhere the coded letter appears. Look for common words and letter patterns to break the code. Words like AND, I, THE and A are found frequently. Common word endings are ING, S and E.

HOW TO PLAY

You must fill in every empty square in the Sudoku grid. There's no right way of going about this, but there is only ever one solution. The big grid is split into nine mini-grids. There are nine rows running left to right and nine columns running down. In every row, you must have each of the numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9. These can be in any order. The same applies to columns and mini-grids: place every number 1 through 9 in each column and in each mini-grid.

The explorers and their newfound treasure

Derelict Detroit's

GRAND SLAM!

A MILLION-dollar stash of baseball cards is waiting to be collected in Detroit — all you have to do is find boxes hidden in an abandoned building and maybe break the law!

The troubled city has lots of vacant properties that lure the curious. The code of the urban explorer is to take nothing and leave nothing — but whoever made that rule never uncovered boxes of baseball cards!

“Most of these abandoned spaces are left empty,” one Detroit explorer told The National ENQUIRER, after asking to remain anonymous.

The explorers were thrilled to find a treasure: millions of packages of baseball cards and sheets of uncut cards just as they were printed!

“Some of those might have been taken just to put up as posters,” said the sheepish explorer. “Maybe a few guys got curious about how much some of those baseball cards were worth.”

It turned out the boxes were from the Topps Company from the late 1980s to early 1990s.

Sadly, the market was glutted then, and few of the newfound cards are worth more than $1.

“That’s still tempting when you’re looking at over a million baseball cards!” said the Detroit denizen.

Fortunately, “nearly everyone” has honored the urban explorer’s code.

Of course, it helps that nobody wants to be arrested for stealing — which keeps this fun find from becoming a crime story while collecting a place at the top of the Odd List! NE

Introducing Kyrobak®, the only home-use device using professional Oscillation Therapy and Continuous Passive Motion (CPM) technology, recommended by doctors worldwide, that's clinically proven to bring you...

LASTING RELIEF from BACK PAIN

TAKES JUST 10 MINUTES

"I've been battling this pain for about 14 years and I've taken painkillers, muscle relaxants, prescription drugs... but I haven't had to take a single thing since I started on the Kyrobak. I just love not having to have all these chemicals in my body and it gives me so much more energy!"

Celeste,
Dance
Instructor

Introducing Kyrobak, the new device that uses professional technology for personal use to deliver lasting results — and it takes just 10 relaxing minutes!

Kyrobak is clinically proven* to treat lower back pain and provide lasting relief. For many users, it offers a drug-free alternative to the constant requirement for powerful painkillers.

And, in a recent clinical study, Kyrobak was shown to continue to provide pain relief even 3 weeks after usage was stopped!

Now, for the first time ever, Oscillation Therapy and Continuous Passive Motion technology, as used by medical professionals, are available in this doctor-recommended, home-use device. Just 10 relaxing minutes is all it takes for Kyrobak to deliver lasting relief for your lower back pain.

"Ten minutes and then I'm free to do the things I love without pain, without worrying if something is going to stop me from enjoying life."
Ken S., Museum Curator

DISCOVER THE KYROBAK ADVANTAGE

With Kyrobak, you will get much more than momentary relief. The longer Kyrobak users continued treatment, the more relief they reported.

Kyrobak is convenient and easy to use!

NO ASSEMBLY NEEDED

3 SIMPLE STEPS TO LASTING RELIEF

STEP 1
PLUG IN!

ABSOLUTELY NO ASSEMBLY REQUIRED BEFORE USE

STEP 2
LIE DOWN!

SO EASY TO USE! SIMPLY CLOSE YOUR EYES AND RELAX

STEP 3
TURN ON!

AUTO SWITCH-OFF AFTER EACH 10-MINUTE TREATMENT

DOCTOR RECOMMENDED

"What makes Kyrobak so effective is the unique CPM technology it provides to muscles and joints. This specific type of motion reduces inflammation and sends important signals to the nervous system to restore muscle tone, balance and blood supply."
